

Walking distance

Why visit

Time visiting

Pembroke
Townhouse

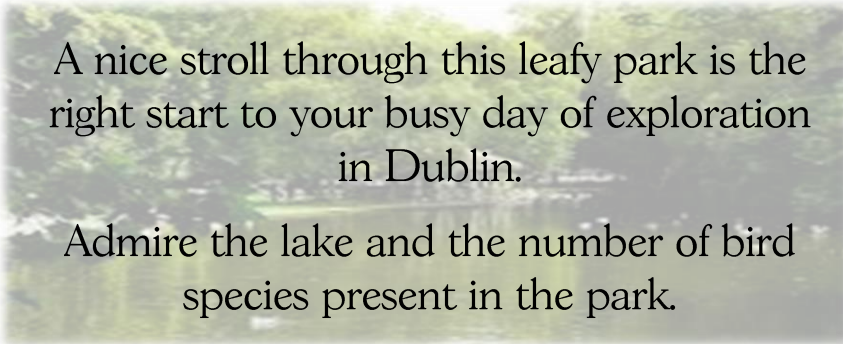

Wake up with a freshly brewed coffee or tea.

15/20 mins

[St. Stephen's
Green](#)

A nice stroll through this leafy park is the right start to your busy day of exploration in Dublin.

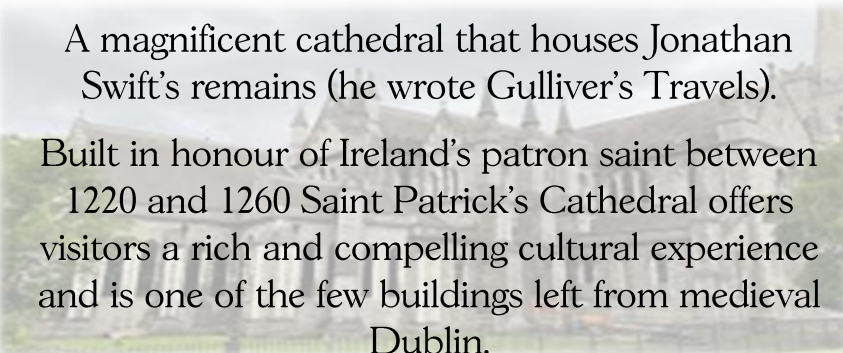

Admire the lake and the number of bird species present in the park.

30 mins

15 mins

St. Patrick's Cathedral

A magnificent cathedral that houses Jonathan Swift's remains (he wrote Gulliver's Travels).

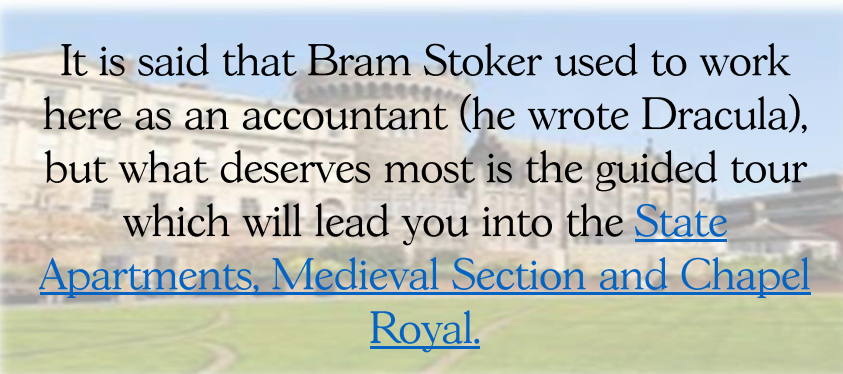

Built in honour of Ireland's patron saint between 1220 and 1260 Saint Patrick's Cathedral offers visitors a rich and compelling cultural experience and is one of the few buildings left from medieval Dublin.

45 mins

10 mins

Dublin Castle

It is said that Bram Stoker used to work here as an accountant (he wrote Dracula), but what deserves most is the guided tour which will lead you into the State Apartments, Medieval Section and Chapel Royal.

60 mins

5 mins

Temple Bar Area

Enjoy the sight of the so many bars scattered throughout this area, particularly Temple Bar Pub - the centre of the night life.

Why not enjoy a pint of the black stuff here?

10/30 mins

10 mins

Trinity College

Graduates, usually found by the main entrance, will offer a guided tour which is really entertaining and informative.

Otherwise feel free to explore by yourself and don't miss the chance to go to the Book of Kells Exhibition and the Old Library.

60 mins

Need to grab something to eat?

You will find two options in front of the Trinity College:

1. The Pig's Ear: an authentic Irish culinary experience in a modern restaurant (reservation may be required)
2. Kilkenny Shop: the café located on the first floor, offers an extensive menu of Irish and International dishes for a modest price, ideal for a quick bite

3 mins

Grafton Street

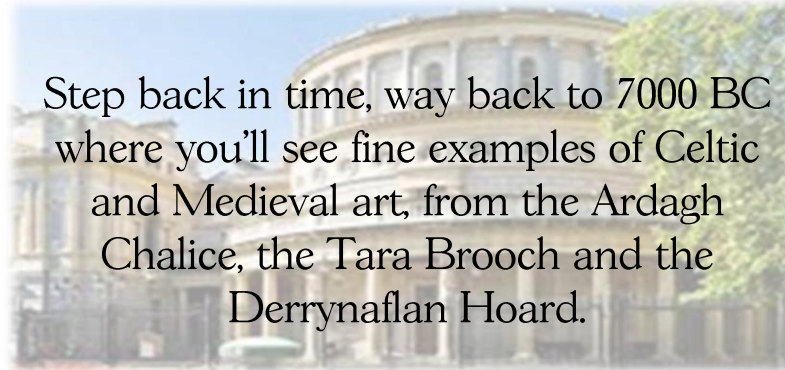

Partake in some shopping through this pedestrian area while accompanied by the tunes of the street artists creating a relaxing and entertaining atmosphere.

30 mins

2 mins

National Museum

Step back in time, way back to 7000 BC where you'll see fine examples of Celtic and Medieval art, from the Ardagh Chalice, the Tara Brooch and the Derrynaflan Hoard.

60 mins

20 mins

Pembroke
Townhouse

Welcome back!

You must be tired from all this exploring, so why not relax in our lobby while having a cuppa and tasting our homemade cake, which is served every day from 3pm.

Check out our “Things to do in Dublin” page for more!